

The shapes of a rod are traced in a Lie algebra

Dr. Giulio Giusteri

Mathematical Soft Matter Unit, OIST

ABSTRACT:

A representation of the shape of a Cosserat rod as a possibly discontinuous path in the special Euclidean algebra will be introduced, together with its theoretical and computational advantages. Also the implications regarding the notion of framed curve will be discussed.